

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Year _____

Use this checklist to determine if your child has a choleric temperament.

If you check fifteen or more boxes, your child is primarily choleric. If you check nine to fourteen, choleric is likely his secondary temperament.

Outgoing
Competitive
Loves conflict
Opinionated
High energy
Lacks sympathy
Acts and speaks without thinking
Determined
Loves a challenge
Intelligent
Strong-willed
Focused
A natural leader
Generous
Talented
Overwhelming
Suddenly and intensely angered
Doesn't like talking about emotions
Loud
Proud
Desires to do great things
Can't stand correction
Has strong initiative
Reacts strongly to praise or criticism
Holds onto impressions
Loves logic and reason
Ambitious
Works independently

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Year _____

Teaching your choleric child HUMILITY

Assess: Describe your child's pride.

Create goals: How would you like your child to grow in humility by the end of this year?

Choose methods and materials: How will you reach your goals?

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Year _____

Choose methods and materials for teaching your choleric child humility (continued).

Review: Did your child meet your goals?

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Year _____

Teaching your choleric child COMPASSION

Assess: Describe your child's attitude toward others' feelings.

Create goals: How would you like your child to grow in compassion by the end of this year?

Choose methods and materials: How will you reach your goals?

Child's Name _____

Age _____

Year _____

Choose methods and materials for teaching your choleric child compassion (continued).

Review: Did your child meet your goals?